COLENOY NEWS.

Colenoy school begins work on next Monday, August the first. A number of attractive visitors have promised to be present on the opening day. Among these are Gary Hiott, our popular weekly visitor, through The Pickens Sentinel; T. A. Bowen, farm agent, and F. V. Clayton, county superintendent of education. A very cordial invitation is extended not only to the patrons of this school but those of adjoining districts.

The protracted meeting begins here on next Sunday. The pastor, Rev. E. M. Bolding, will be assisted by Rev. J. R. Moore.

Rev. Mr. Whiteside, superintendent of the Baptist Hospital of Columbia; Rev. and Mrs. F. T. Cox, of Pickens, and Miss Azilee Wofford, of Laurens, were visitors in the community for a short while Sunday Afternoon. It is good news to the entire community here to learn that Miss Wofford will be with us during the meeting. She is remembered as having worked here last summer under the Home Board.

That "all things come to him that wait" has been demonstrated in the road work on the Pickens-Pumpkin-town road. The work of topsoiling has been resumed. The event was the cause of great rejoicing. It is not confined to this section alone, either. Somebody said that they were even smiling over it as far as the North Carolina line, to say nothing of all the Pleasant Grove, Holly Springs and Mt. Tabor sections. The encouraging statement made by Supervisor McKinney is that he is going to stay at the job here until the worst is completed. And that will mean all of it for it is all the "worst."
